

Asheville Eckankar January Public Events

First Sunday, Worship Service

Sunday, January 3, 2010 at 11:00 am

Learning How to Accept God's Love

"Beyond experience is something much more important, and this is simply learning how to give and receive God's love. And that's not experience. That's a condition. That's being able to open your heart, to open your wings, to accept the gifts of life."

Harold Klemp, The Secret of Love, The Mahanta Transcripts, Book 14, p. 167

Please join us for a potluck following the service.

Second Sunday, Video and Discussion

Sunday, January 10, 2010 at 11:00 am

The video will continue discussion of Harold Klemp's 1991 ECK Summer Festival talk titled "Stories From the Heart, Volume 4."

Third Sunday, Roundtable Discussion

Sunday, January 17, 2010 at 11:00 am

The Roundtable Discussion will be a deeper exploration of this month's worship topic, "Learning How to Accept God's Love."

Thursday, January 21, noon and 6:00 pm

The Third Thursday video event features a talk by Harold Klemp, shown without interruption. For January, this will be from the 1990 ECK Springtime Seminar and is titled "Children Ask Some Questions" where Harold responds to schoolchildren's questions. You may bring a bag lunch or dinner for this forty-five minute event. Visitors welcome.

Fourth Sunday, Book Discussion

Sunday, January 24, 2010 at 11:00 am

This Book Discussion will begin Love—The Language of Life by Harold Klemp, part of the Immortality of Soul Series. We'll study keys to a life of greater love, wisdom, and freedom. Sample chapter titles include Giving—The Secret to Getting, The Lessons of Love and Thanks, and Recognizing God's Blessings. There will be handouts of portions to be discussed in case you don't have the book.
